

Just wanted to share my opinion of VRS along with different relay providers; I do believe that Sorenson is one great providers; they have different kind of features that we really rely on it; I do know that they are trying to improve on interpreting; we have experienced like that with TTY/relay; we had to wait a bit longer...so it's the same thing; I admire their creative on features; while other aren't.